

KACY MILLER

LITIGATION STRATEGY AND COMMUNICATIONS CONSULTANT

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

Kacy Miller is the President of CourtroomLogic Consulting, a full-service trial sciences firm offering a comprehensive menu of pretrial research and litigation consulting services structured to meet the unique needs of each client, each case and each budget.

Ms. Miller's expertise assists trial teams throughout the nation in narrowing complex issues down to juror-friendly terms long before trial ever begins. She utilizes several different research techniques and observational tools to identify potential case strengths and weaknesses. Ms. Miller has been a litigation consultant since 1997 and has worked in social sciences since 1989. She has consulted on multi-million dollar cases and has debriefed hundreds of jurors throughout the country. She has extensive experience in the following areas:

- Pretrial Research
- Issue and Fact Analysis
- Theme Development and Storytelling
- Witness Communication Training (Depositions and Trial)
- Critique and Development of Opening Statement and Closing Argument
- Mediation, ADR, Settlement Strategy and Presentations
- Jury Selection and Voir Dire Development
- Supplemental Juror Questionnaires
- Trial Monitoring
- Shadow Juries
- Post-Verdict Interviews
- Graphic Demonstratives
- Animations
- Multimedia Consultation

Prior to founding CourtroomLogic Consulting, Ms. Miller worked as an in-house litigation consultant with the law firm of Strasburger & Price, LLP. She began her consulting career with Courtroom Sciences, Inc.—a nationally recognized trial sciences firm pioneered by Dr. Phil McGraw. Ms. Miller has an undergraduate degree from Baylor University and a Masters of Science in Counseling Psychology from the University of Houston.
